18TH-CENTURY SPANISH GATELEG TABLE WITH FLORAL POLYCHROME DÉCOR AND DROP LEAVES

$7,995

A Spanish gateleg drop leaf table from the 18th century with original painted floral polychrome décor. This 18th-century Spanish gateleg drop leaf table enchants with its original painted floral polychrome décor, bringing a touch of history and charm to any home. When the legs swing open, the table's oval top extends to an impressive 63 inches wide and 49.5 inches deep, offering ample space for dining or display. The surface of the table showcases a vibrant red ground, adorned with delicate bouquets of flowers that draw the eye to their exquisite detailing. Each leaf and the central section are framed with a striking turquoise border, creating a delightful contrast that enhances the overall visual appeal. The base of the table is supported by turned legs, which add a touch of rustic elegance and stability to its design. With its rich colors and graceful curves, this gateleg table serves as a functional piece for everyday use, such as an intimate dining table or a distinctive accent in an entryway. Its unique blend of vibrant polychrome décor and traditional craftsmanship makes it a stunning focal point that can elevate both contemporary and classic interiors, inviting conversations and admiration from guests.
