1940S AMERICAN CARVED WOODEN HORSE HEAD FRAGMENT WITH WEATHERED PATINA

$3,750

An American carved wooden horse head fragment from the mid-20th century, with nicely weathered patina. Made in America during the second quarter of the 20th century, this carved wooden head captures our attention with its expressive features and nicely aged appearance. Featuring brown eyes, the horse is opening his mouth slightly, as if pulled back by the reins. Place anywhere in a home, atop a table, commode, buffet or hung on a wall, this American carved horse head fragment circa 1940 will bring a touch of authenticity to any decor.
