19TH CENTURY ENGLISH PETITE OAK STOOL WITH UNIQUE TOP AND LINEN UPHOLSTERY

$1,400

An English petite oak stool from the 19th century with diamond top, turned legs and custom linen fabric. This petite 19th-century English wooden stool captivates with its unique design and charming presence. Featuring an unusual diamond shaped top, shaped like an angled square, the stool is upholstered in custom linen fabric that adds a layer of refined comfort. The upholstery is meticulously secured with a brass nailhead trim, providing a subtle decorative accent that enhances its overall character. Supported by elegantly turned legs, this stool showcases arrow feet, which contribute to its distinctive silhouette and vintage appeal. Its compact size and charming details make it a versatile piece, perfect for various settings around the home. Whether used as an extra seat in a living room, or even as a decorative accent in a hallway, this petite wooden stool brings a touch of English country charm to any space. With its natural patina and handcrafted features, this stool offers both functionality and aesthetic appeal. Its timeless design and unique shape ensure that it remains a captivating focal point, suitable for a range of decor styles from traditional to eclectic. This piece is ideal for those who appreciate the subtle beauty of antique furniture with a distinctive twist.
