19TH CENTURY FRENCH WALNUT SIDE TABLE WITH SLIDING DOOR AND TURNED LEGS

$2,995

A French walnut side table from the 19th century, notable for its practical sliding door compartment. The rectangular top sits above a case fitted with a paneled front that slides sideways to reveal an interior storage space. This unusual construction offers discreet storage while maintaining a clean, rectilinear appearance.

The table stands on four robust turned legs joined by an X-form stretcher, giving it both stability and decorative presence. The warm walnut shows attractive grain variations and a rich patina, characteristic of French provincial furniture of the period.

With its compact size and practical compartment, this versatile piece can serve as a side table, nightstand, or occasional stand. It reflects the utility and charm of 19th century provincial craftsmanship, where simple forms were enlivened with thoughtful details and quality materials.
