AMERICAN 1950S CONCRETE RECLINING DEER WITH ANTLERS AND WEATHERED APPEARANCE

$1,950

An American concrete deer from the mid-20th century, with nicely weathered appearance. Made in the US during the 1950s, this concrete deer charms us with its lovely subject and great patina. Reclining on the ground, the deer is turning his head sideways, his attention drawn to something invisible to us. Topped with antlers, this American midcentury concrete deer will bring a rustic touch of authenticity to any garden!
