ART DECO FRENCH GILT IRON BENCH WITH CURVING LEGS AND NEW LINEN UPHOLSTERY

$4,500

A French Art Deco gilt iron bench circa 1920 with large scrolling and canted legs and rectangular seat newly and professionally reupholstered with a neutral toned linen upholstery. Infuse your interior with a touch of timeless elegance with this exquisite French Art Deco gilt iron bench, dating back to circa 1920. The bench effortlessly blends the striking aesthetic of the Art Deco era with a modern sensibility, making it a versatile piece for any decor style. The bench is characterized by its large, ornate scrolling legs, which give a nod to the grandeur of the period. The legs are canted, adding a unique architectural element that sets this piece apart. The ironwork is finished in gilt, imparting a warm, luxurious sheen. The rectangular seat has been newly and professionally reupholstered in a neutral-toned linen fabric. The upholstery showcases a subtle texture that adds depth and visual interest while maintaining a sleek, streamlined look that is characteristic of the Art Deco style. The fabric's neutral tone enhances the bench's versatility, allowing it to blend seamlessly into a variety of color schemes and decor styles. Whether you're looking to add a statement piece to your living room, a stylish accent to your bedroom, or an elegant touch to your entryway, this French Art Deco gilt iron bench is a perfect choice. Its striking design and high-quality craftsmanship are sure to impress, while its understated upholstery ensures it will remain a timeless piece for years to come.
