AUSTRIAN BIEDERMEIER 19TH CENTURY WALNUT SIDE TABLE WITH STAR MARQUETRY TOP

$3,995

An Austrian Biedermeier side table from the 19th century, crafted in walnut with an elegant sense of balance and proportion. The rectangular top is distinguished by a central star marquetry inlay, formed from contrasting veneers, that adds a striking focal point to the otherwise restrained surface. Its softly contoured edges lend subtle movement to the form, typical of Biedermeier's quiet sophistication.

Raised on four shaped legs with graceful curves, the table combines stability with lightness, creating a piece that is both functional and decorative. A lower tier provides an additional surface, enhancing practicality while complementing the harmonious design.

Compact in scale, this side table adapts easily to modern interiors, whether used beside a chair, as a lamp table, or as a display stand for decorative objects. Its simple lines, enriched by the geometric inlay, make it a timeless expression of 19th-century craftsmanship, well suited for collectors and decorators seeking understated elegance.
