$3,750

A pair of Baker Furniture Company Art Deco style wooden nesting tables from the 20th century made of an oval table and a rectangular one, with veneered geometric motifs. Exemplifying the essence of Art Deco style, this stunning pair of Baker Furniture Company wooden nesting tables from the 20th century is a fusion of form, function, and timeless elegance. These nesting tables, one oval and one rectangular, are designed to complement each other, creating a versatile and striking ensemble that will elevate any interior space. The oval table, featuring a smooth and curvaceous surface, exudes a sense of grace and sophistication. Its counterpart, the rectangular table, presents a more structured form, while still maintaining a sense of fluidity that harmonizes with the oval table's design. Each table is adorned with veneered geometric motifs, a characteristic hallmark of Art Deco style. These intricate patterns draw the eye and imbue the tables with a sense of opulence and luxury that is both captivating and refined. Crafted by the renowned Baker Furniture Company, these nesting tables are a testament to the company's commitment to exceptional craftsmanship and design. The tables' sleek lines and seamless construction showcase the impeccable attention to detail that has earned the company its esteemed reputation. This pair of Art Deco style wooden nesting tables from the 20th century, crafted by the Baker Furniture Company, is a marriage of elegance, versatility, and timeless design. The combination of an oval and rectangular table adorned with veneered geometric motifs creates a visually appealing and functional duo that will effortlessly enhance the ambiance of any space, making them a truly exceptional addition to any home.
