COUNTRY FRENCH IRON GARDEN TABLE WITH SCROLLED BASE AND WEATHERED PATINA, 1920S

$2,650

This Country French iron garden table, dating to the early 20th century circa 1920, captures the timeless spirit of outdoor living in provincial France. Its circular top, pierced at the center to accommodate a parasol, rests on an elegant scrolled base of forged iron. The legs curve outward with understated grace before meeting the ground in a stable crossed formation, giving the piece both delicacy of line and reassuring sturdiness.

The surface bears the honest traces of age and weather, with a beautifully mottled patina that speaks to decades of use in a garden or terrace setting. Such wear is not only expected but valued, offering an authenticity and depth of character that newer reproductions cannot match.

Measuring 31 inches in height and 28.5 inches in diameter, the table is well proportioned for intimate outdoor dining, afternoon coffee, or as a decorative centerpiece surrounded by potted plants. With its rustic charm and enduring materials, this French iron garden table will lend warmth and authenticity to any setting, indoors or out.
