ENGLISH 1850S OAK CHAIR WITH PIERCED BACK, CARVED INSCRIPTION AND WOODEN SEAT

$2,850

An English oak hall chair from the mid 19th century, with pierced back, carved letters and wooden seat. Created in England during the 1850s, this oak hall chair features a slightly slanted back, pierced in its center, carved on the sides and incised with letters on the upper rail. The rectangular wooden seat is resting on four simple splaying legs. With its unusual decor and lovely oak patina, this English chair circa 1850 will make for a great decorative accent in any hallway, foyer or mudroom.
