ENGLISH 18TH CENTURY GEORGIAN PERIOD WALNUT CONSOLE TABLE WITH PAD FEET

$4,375

An English Georgian period walnut console table from the 18th century, with molded apron and pad feet. Created in England during the Georgian period in the 18th century, this walnut console table features a rectangular single plank top with nicely weathered appearance and imperfections sitting above a simple yet elegant recessed Cavetto style molded apron. The table is raised on four slender tapering legs with simply carved knees, resting on pad feet. The sides are decorated in the same manner than the front while the back is bare, painted in black. The table will indeed look at its best placed against a wall. With its graceful lines, understated presence and petite proportions, this English Georgian period walnut console table with pad feet from the 18th century will bring a touch of subtle elegance to any home, placed in a living room or hallway.
