ENGLISH 1920S BRASS FOUR-LIGHT LANTERN WITH GLASS PANELS WITH ANGEL MOTIFS

$2,495

An English brass lantern from circa 1920 with four lights, angel motifs and glass panels. Created in England circa 1920, this exquisite brass lantern exudes a blend of elegance and subtlety, capturing the timeless charm of early 20th-century design. The lantern features a refined brass structure with graceful tapering lines, housing four lights that provide a warm and inviting glow. Surrounding the lights are clear glass panels that enhance the fixture's classic appeal. Adorning the upper section of the lantern are intricate angel motifs, adding a touch of celestial grace and sophistication. These four angels are elegantly connected to the canopy through profiled links, creating a harmonious and balanced design. The lower part of the lantern is accented with petite spheres, adding a delicate and refined touch to the overall aesthetic. Professionally rewired for the USA, this lantern ensures modern functionality while retaining its antique allure. Perfect for enhancing a foyer, dining room, or living area, this English brass lantern brings a sense of historical charm and elegance to any space. Its combination of detailed brasswork and glass panels makes it a captivating focal point, while the angel motifs add a touch of ethereal beauty. Whether hung in a traditional or contemporary setting, this circa 1920 brass lantern offers both decorative appeal and practical illumination, making it a cherished addition to any home. Its intricate details and graceful design celebrate the artistry and craftsmanship of early 20th-century English lighting, ensuring it will be a treasured piece for years to come.
