ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY BRASS AND MIRROR ARCHITECTURAL ELEMENT WITH FLORAL DECOR

$4,500

An English brass and mirror architectural element from the 19th century with abundant floral and fruit décor surrounding a monogram. This exquisite English brass and mirror architectural element from the 19th century captivates with its abundant floral and fruit décor surrounding a central monogram. Its beautifully scalloped silhouette is crowned by a mouthwatering fruit basket on the crest, immediately drawing the eye. This opulent centerpiece gracefully leads to two large volutes, each adorned with additional fruits, adding a sense of movement and richness to the piece. Floral garlands, intricately detailed, frame the mirrored sections and flank the central oval monogram, creating a harmonious balance between the reflective surfaces and the ornate brasswork. The combination of lush fruits and delicate flowers, highlighted against the mirrors, enhances the overall aesthetic, making it a striking decorative item. This 19th-century architectural element can serve as a stunning focal point in any home. Its grand design and detailed craftsmanship make it perfect for adding a touch of Victorian elegance to a living room, hallway, or above a mantelpiece. The interplay of brass and mirror not only brightens the space but also introduces a sense of historical charm and sophistication. This piece is a testament to the intricate artistry of the period, seamlessly blending functionality with decorative beauty.
