ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY MAHOGANY CHILD'S CHAIR WITH FEATHER MOTIFS AND MARQUETRY

$1,350

An English mahogany child's chair from the 19th century, with feather motifs and marquetry décor. Created in England during the 19th century, this petite chair features an open back adorned with feather motifs on the splat, and an urn marquetry on the upper rail. Two scrolling arms resting on turned supports flank a seat recovered with a neutral toned upholstery. Raised on four straight legs connected to one another through side stretchers, this 19th century English mahogany small chair will bring a subtle touch of elegance to any child's room.
