ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY MAHOGANY GUÉRIDON WITH GADROONS AND GRIFFIN INSPIRED LEGS

$6,500

An English mahogany guéridon pedestal side table from the 19th century with brass inlay, gadroon motifs and carved griffin legs. Created in England during the 19th century, this mahogany guéridon side table features a circular top with recessed panel, adorned in its center with an inlaid brass medallion. Surrounded by an elegant gadrooned edge, this top is sitting on an hexagonal in-curving pedestal resting on a tripod base made of three carved legs inspired by a griffin's hind paws. This reveals an inspiration from Egyptian motifs, which were particularly popular in the early years of the 19th century. Mounted on a tripartite stretcher, the table boasts a nice brown patina. With its elegant lines and skillfully carved décor, this English mahogany guéridon side table from the 19th century will bring an undeniable touch of refinement to any home, perhaps placed in a living room, bedroom or hallway, supporting a statuette, vase or candlestick.
