ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY OAK DRESSER BASE WITH MARQUETRY, DOORS AND DRAWERS

$14,400

An English oak dresser base from the 19th century with marquetry, banding, doors and drawers. This 19th-century English oak dresser base is a testament to the era's exquisite craftsmanship and attention to detail. Featuring discreetly inlaid marquetry, the dresser showcases small vases with floral designs adorning the door panels, bringing a touch of nature and artistry into the home. The dresser is thoughtfully designed with four drawers, positioned symmetrically around the central doors, providing ample storage for a variety of items, from cutlery and table linens to keepsakes and collectibles. The piece is further enhanced by the delicate banding that frames the doors and drawers, highlighting the natural beauty of the oak wood and its rich patina, developed over centuries. The skirt is adorned with arching accents, adding a graceful curve to the robust silhouette. Below, a lower shelf offers additional storage or display space, supported by elegantly turned legs that ensure stability while adding to the piece's overall aesthetic appeal. Ideal for use in a dining room or kitchen, this dresser base can serve as a focal point for serving and entertaining, or as a stylish storage solution that blends seamlessly with both traditional and contemporary decors. Its timeless design and quality construction make it a valuable addition to any home, offering both functionality and a piece of history.
