ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY OAK DROP LEAVES DRAPER'S TABLE WITH BRASS MEASURING TAPE

$8,995

An English oak draper's table from the 19th century, with brass measuring tape and drop leaves. Created in England during the 19th century, this oak table features a rectangular top with inlaid brass measuring tape flanked with two drop leaves (the top measuring 45"W with the leaves down). The apron showcases two drawers with scalloped hardware, one of them bearing the tag "Tolley Maker London". Raised on four cylindrical tapering legs on flattened feet, this 19th century oak draper's table will make for a great accent table to any home!
