ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY PINE CRICKET TABLE WITH CIRCULAR TOP AND TRIANGULAR SHELF

$2,995

An English rustic pine cricket table from the 19th century, with circular top and triangular shelf. Created in England during the 19th century, this rustic cricket side table features a circular top, sitting above a simple triangular apron. The table is raised on three straight splayed legs, connected to one another through a lower shelf. Created in the early 16th century, cricket tables were traditionally made of three legs that allowed them to stand more strongly on uneven grounds as they were placed outdoors. With its unpretentious silhouette and nicely weathered patina, this 19th century English pine cricket table will bring a touch of authenticity to any home.
