ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY SATINWOOD TABLE WITH TILT TOP WRITING AREA AND CHECKERBOARD

$14,000

An English satinwood desk and game table from the 19th century with tilt top writing area, checkerboard and two drawers. This 19th-century English satinwood desk and game table is a masterpiece of both functionality and artistic craftsmanship. Its multi-purpose design makes it an exquisite addition to any home, offering versatility and elegance in one package. The tabletop is a marvel in itself, ingeniously divided into three sections. The central section, fitted with leather, lifts up to create a convenient writing area. It can also be fully opened, revealing a hidden storage compartment, perfect for keeping your stationery and documents organized. The apron, adorned with a hand-painted floral décor, is no less impressive, featuring two functional drawers for additional storage and two dummy drawers. However, the real highlight is the built-in checkerboard, allowing for impromptu games and entertainment with friends and family. Resting on an ornate base with brass lion paw feet, this piece exudes opulence and refinement. The height from the apron to the floor is 23 inches, making it an ideal fit for various seating arrangements. In your home, this satinwood desk and game table can serve as a focal point in your living room, library, or study. It's not only a practical workspace for writing and organizing but also an elegant platform for social gatherings and leisurely games. Its timeless design and meticulous craftsmanship ensure it will be cherished for generations, blending seamlessly with both traditional and contemporary interiors. Embrace the charm of this remarkable piece, where form meets function in a harmonious blend of beauty and utility. It's not just a table; it's a statement of taste and sophistication in your home.
