ENGLISH CARVED GILTWOOD CONVEX MIRROR WITH MYTHICAL CREATURES, CIRCA 1840

$8,500

An English carved giltwood convex mirror from the 19th century, with mythical creatures and twisted frame. Born in England during the second quarter of the 19th century, this giltwood mirror captures our attention with its carved crest topped with a dragon figure flanked with morphing creatures showcasing swan-reminiscent necks. The circular frame, adorned with twisted motifs and accented with foliage in its lower section, secures a convex mirror plate reflecting generously its surroundings. With its skillfully carved décor and giltwood finish, this English convex mirror circa 1840 will enliven any wall, perhaps hung above a commode, credenza or side table.
