ENGLISH COPPER ARTS & CRAFTS 19TH CENTURY RIVETED PLANTER WITH PATINA FINISH

$2,700

An English Arts and Crafts copper planter from the 19th century with hand-riveted bands. This 19th-century English copper planter embodies timeless charm with its rich patina and hand-riveted bands that celebrate the Arts and Crafts era's dedication to quality craftsmanship. Crafted from aged copper, this piece showcases warm, burnished tones and natural weathering that give it character and depth. Perfect for adding a touch of vintage English elegance to your home, this planter serves as both a decorative statement and functional vessel. Display it in an entryway to welcome guests with seasonal arrangements, or use it as a stylish cachepot for indoor plants, where the copper's patina will enhance the natural greenery. Its versatility allows it to stand out in various settings; place it near a fireplace for a cozy, rustic touch, or use it on a covered patio to elevate your garden style. Whether filled with fresh blooms or left as a sculptural accent, this planter brings a piece of English heritage into your living space, celebrating traditional craftsmanship in a way that complements both modern and antique decor.
