$1,975

An English double leather bucket from the early 20th century, with royal motto and coat of arms. Boasting a lovely shade of green, this double leather bucket is adorned on the front with the English royal coat of arms, made of a lion and a unicorn flanking a central shield adorned with the Anglo-Normand maxim 'Honi soit qui mal y pense' (May he be shamed who thinks badly of it) as well as 'Dieu et mon droit' (God and my right), the motto of the Monarch of the United Kingdom. Accented with delicate gilt motifs and raised on petite ball feet, this double bucket is topped with a large brass handle allowing the piece to be moved easily. Placed anywhere in a home, perhaps in an entrance or mudroom to be used as an umbrella stand, this English 1920s leather double bucket will bring a stylish presence to any décor.
