ENGLISH EARLY OAK CUPBOARD WITH TWO DOORS AND DISTRESSED PATINA, 18TH CENTURY

$12,600

An English early oak cupboard from the 18th century, with rustic appearance, two doors, carved panels and distressed patina. Created in England during the 18th century, this oak cupboard charms us with its country flair and simple lines. The cupboard features a rectangular planked top sitting above two doors adorned with two levels of carved panels on each side. These doors open thanks to brass pulls to reveal a distressed interior with inner shelves. Showcasing a peg construction, the cupboard is resting on a bracketed plinth. The sides are made of simply recessed panels and the planked back is stained in a dark grey charcoal color. With its clean lines and nicely weathered appearance revealing its age and good use, this English oak cupboard from the 18th century will make for a wonderful addition to any home, particularly placed in a kitchen!
