ENGLISH EBONIZED BARLEY TWIST PEDESTAL TABLE WITH ZEBRA HIDE AND GILT DETAILING

$4,500

An English Victorian period barley Twist accent table from the 19th century with ebonized and gilt finish. This elegant 19th-century English accent table brings an exotic and timeless charm to any home. With its ebonized spiral base and lavish gilded detailing, this piece reflects the luxurious Victorian taste for the ornate and the unique. The authentic zebra hide on the tabletop adds an eye-catching contrast, inviting both conversation and admiration. The rich, dark finish paired with gold accents enhances its sophistication, making it an ideal choice for lovers of Victorian decor with a touch of the exotic. Imagine this accent table gracing a library or study, where it can serve as a striking pedestal for a vintage vase, a cherished statue, or even a stack of well-worn leather-bound books. Its compact size and tall, slender form make it versatile enough for entryways, where it can elevate a foyer with its one-of-a-kind design. The zebra hide top, encircled by delicate metal studs, adds texture and depth to any room, allowing it to serve as both functional furniture and a statement piece. This table's detailed craftsmanship and rare materials make it a prized collectible that can easily fit into both antique and eclectic contemporary interiors. The mix of ebonized wood and gilded ornamentation, along with authentic hide, captures the opulence of the period while adding a distinctive flair to your space. For those who appreciate antique artistry blended with bold design elements, this piece offers a captivating focal point that transforms a room with its historic charm.
