ENGLISH GEORGIAN PERIOD LOW OAK SIDE TABLE WITH SINGLE DRAWER AND CARVED APRON

$3,750

An English Georgian period oak low side table from the early 19th century, with single drawer and scalloped apron. Created in England during the early years of the 19th century, this oak side table features a rectangular planked top sitting above a single drawer with wooden pull and striated motifs. The table is raised on four straight splaying legs connected to one another through side stretchers and a scalloped apron in the front. With its small proportions and oak patina, this English side table circa 1800 will be a lovely addition to any home.
