ENGLISH IRON UMBRELLA STAND DEPICTING A DOG SITTING IN FRONT OF A TREE

$1,950

An English iron umbrella stand from the 20th century depicting a dog obediently sitting in front of a tree. Embrace the whimsical charm of this 20th-century English iron umbrella stand, a perfect amalgamation of practicality and aesthetic appeal. A testament to craftsmanship, this piece brings functionality and character to any entrance or hallway with its delightful depiction of a dog obediently sitting in front of a tree. Crafted from sturdy iron, the umbrella stand is a durable and long-lasting addition to your home. It features the profile of a faithful hound patiently seated at the base of a tree, waiting to welcome you home. This canine-themed umbrella stand adds a playful touch to any entryway, showcasing a love for animals and a flair for distinctive style. Functionally designed, the umbrella stand incorporates a semi-circular tray at the base, efficiently collecting any water that drips from wet umbrellas. It's a testament to the thoughtful design of this antique piece, ensuring practical use while maintaining its aesthetic charm. The English iron umbrella stand serves as an attractive and handy storage solution for your rainy-day accessories. The dog and tree motif, coupled with the rich, time-worn patina of the iron, make this piece not just a utility item, but a conversation-starter. It's a wonderful and charming find for anyone seeking to add a touch of British antiquity to their decor.
