ENGLISH IRON UMBRELLA STAND WITH DOG AND TREE MOTIF AND WHITE RECEPTACLE

$2,250

An English iron umbrella stand from the 20th century with dog sitting in front of a tree motif. Add a dash of whimsical elegance to your foyer or hallway with this handsome English iron umbrella stand from the 20th century. Brimming with character and utility, it's a charming must-have accessory for a home imbued with vintage charm. The unique design showcases a beautifully crafted profile of a dog sitting in front of a tree, lending an endearing allure to the piece. This delightful motif, captured in sturdy iron, conjures an image of rustic countryside living, immediately welcoming guests into your home with warmth and nostalgia. At the base of the stand, a white enamel demi-lune receptacle seamlessly integrates functionality and design. This cleverly positioned element collects water drippings from wet umbrellas, keeping your entryway dry and slip-free. Fashioned from durable iron, this umbrella stand assures long-lasting resilience, making it an essential piece for homes in wetter climates. Its natural patina over the years only adds to its rustic appeal, infusing your space with timeless beauty. This English iron umbrella stand, with its delightful dog motif, not only serves a practical purpose but also adds a touch of charm, seamlessly blending with your vintage-themed decor. A true testimony to British craftsmanship, it's an unforgettable addition to your home.
