ENGLISH LATE VICTORIAN ERA BRASS AND IRON UMBRELLA STAND WITH PINECONES, 1900S

$1,800

An English Late Victorian era brass umbrella stand from circa 1900 with pinecone motifs and iron base. Embrace the timeless elegance of the Late Victorian era with this exquisite English brass umbrella stand, circa 1900. Its captivating pinecone motifs, graceful silhouette, and sturdy iron base will add a touch of refined practicality to your entryway or foyer. The intricate pinecone motifs, meticulously cast and adorned with subtle details, add a touch of visual interest and evoke the beauty of nature. The stand's base, constructed from sturdy iron, provides a stable and secure foundation for even the heaviest of umbrellas. The iron's dark finish complements the warm hues of the brass, creating a harmonious contrast that enhances the stand's overall aesthetic. With its versatile design and captivating presence, this English Late Victorian brass umbrella stand with pinecone motifs and iron base can seamlessly integrate into various settings in your home. In an entryway, it can serve as a welcoming and practical piece, ensuring that your umbrellas are always organized and within easy reach. In a hallway, it can add a touch of elegance and functionality, providing a convenient spot to store umbrellas and other outdoor accessories. Or, in a foyer, it can grace a corner or flank a doorway, adding a touch of Victorian charm and refined practicality to the space.
