ENGLISH LIBERTY & CO. WALNUT THEBES STOOL WITH TRIPOD BASE, TURN OF THE CENTURY

$2,400

An English Liberty & Co. walnut Thebes stool from the Turn of the Century with tripod base. In-curving wooden seat resting on three delicately curving legs. This English Liberty & Co. walnut Thebes stool from the turn of the century captures the essence of Arts and Crafts design with its graceful curves and clean lines. The stool features an in-curving wooden seat resting on three delicately curving legs, creating a sense of balance and harmony. The tripod base not only provides stability but also adds a sculptural quality to the piece, making it as much a work of art as a functional seat. Crafted from warm-toned walnut, the stool exudes a natural patina that highlights the grain and character of the wood. The curved seat offers ergonomic comfort, making it perfect as an occasional seat in a living room, a stylish accent in an entryway, or a unique side table. Its compact size and versatile design allow it to fit effortlessly into various settings, from a cozy reading nook to a refined bedroom corner. Embodying the Liberty & Co. tradition of blending form and function, this Thebes stool will bring a touch of British craftsmanship and historical charm to any home. Its unique tripod base and elegant silhouette make it a conversation piece that will enhance both modern and traditional interiors, adding a hint of antique elegance and an artistic flair.
