ENGLISH MIDCENTURY LEAD BIRD BATH DEPICTING A SHELL WITH SQUIRREL AND BIRD

$2,850

An English lead bird bath from the mid 20th century, with squirrel and bird sitting on a shell. Created in England during the midcentury period, this lead bird bath features a scalloped shell on base, on which a squirrel and a bird are resting. The squirrel, sitting straight, is eating a nut while the bird, its wings extended, is leaning down to drink water. Boasting a nicely weathered patina, this vintage Midcentury English bird bath will be a lovely addition to any garden!
