ENGLISH OAK BUCKET WITH BRASS HANDLE AND HORIZONTAL BRACES, CIRCA 1880

$1,450

An English oak bucket from the late 19th century, with brass handle and braces. Born in England during the last quarter of the 19th century, this charming oak bucket features vertical slats reinforced by the presence of horizontal brass braces, whose golden hue compliments the wooden patina beautifully, while the interior boasts a lovely red color. With its large handle allowing the piece to be moved easily and its nicely weathered appearance, this English oak bucket circa 1880 will bring a touch of authenticity to any home.
