425 Peachtree Hills NE, No. 18 | Atlanta, GA 30305 | 404.351.9433 | info@englishaccentantiques.com

ENGLISH OAK THREE-DRAWER LOW DRESSER OR SERVING TABLE, CIRCA 1800

$12,600

This English oak piece, dating to around 1800, sits at the intersection of low dresser, server, and console table—practical furniture built with a strong emphasis on durability and everyday use. The long rectangular top, showing age and use, carries a deep, well-developed patina that speaks to its early origin.

The façade is organized with three drawers, each fronted with molded geometric panels—octagonal and lozenge motifs—centered by turned wooden knobs. The presence of original-style escutcheons and the hand-worked feel of the drawer fronts reinforce its period character. The drawers themselves are generously sized, offering useful storage while maintaining a balanced visual rhythm across the front.

The base is supported by turned legs at the front and simpler rear supports, joined by a stretcher for stability. This combination of turned and plain elements is typical of English country furniture of the late 18th to early 19th century, where function dictated form but did not exclude thoughtful detailing.

Versatile in use, the piece can serve as a low sideboard, an entry console, or even a kitchen work surface. Its scale and honest construction make it particularly appealing for interiors that value authenticity and patina over refinement.

Height: 31 in (78.74 cm)

Width: 70 in (177.8 cm)

Depth: 19.5 in (49.53 cm)

SKU: A 6730

ENGLISH ACCENT
ANTIQUES

425 Peachtree Hills NE, No. 18 | Atlanta, GA 30305 | 404.351.9433 | info@englishaccentantiques.com