ENGLISH PAINTED MIRROR WITH CARVED CREST AND CHINOISERIE INSPIRED MOTIFS

$5,750

An English painted wall mirror from the mid 20th century, with carved openwork motifs, black and golden tones and distressed finish. Created in England during the second quarter of the 20th century, this wall mirror attracts the attention with its Chinoiserie inspiration and black and gold colors. The piece features a carved crest showcasing openwork motifs made of linear scrolls and foliage. Presenting a black ground perfectly contrasted by golden details, the mirror boasts a nicely weathered patina revealing its age. The mirror plate is clear and offers perfect reflection. With its Chinoiserie influence and distressed finish, this English carved wall mirror circa 1940 will make for an exotic addition to any home décor, perhaps hung above a side table, a commode or a sofa.
