ENGLISH PINE 19TH CENTURY DROP LEAF TABLE WITH OVAL TOP AND CARVED APRON

$6,750

An English rustic pine drop leaf table from the 19th century with oval top, two drop leaves, carved apron, turned legs, plain side stretchers, swivel legs and rectangular block joints. Capture the rustic charm of 19th-century English craftsmanship with this delightful pine drop leaf table. Crafted in England, this table showcases a timeless design that is both functional and visually appealing. The table features an oval top with two drop leaves, each measuring 25.25 inches, allowing for versatile use and easy storage when not in use. The drop leaves can be easily extended or folded down, adapting to your specific needs and space constraints. Adding to its rustic allure, the table boasts a carved apron, which adds a touch of decorative elegance to its overall design. The attention to detail is evident in the carved apron, showcasing the skilled craftsmanship of the era.

Supported by turned legs, this table offers both stability and visual interest. The turned legs add a classic element to the piece, complementing its rustic aesthetic. The plain side stretchers contribute to the table's durability and provide additional support. One notable feature of this table is its swivel legs, which allow for easy movement and storage. This practical design feature adds to the table's versatility and makes it a convenient choice for various living spaces. This English rustic pine drop leaf table embodies the rustic charm and versatility that makes it a perfect addition to any farmhouse, cottage, or eclectic interior. Its timeless design, combined with its practical features, ensures that it will be a cherished piece for years to come.
