ENGLISH REGENCY PERIOD 19TH CENTURY MAHOGANY SIDE TABLE WITH GREY MARBLE TOP

$10,800

An English Regency period mahogany side table from the 19th century, with grey veined marble top, carved pedestal, tripod base and brass lion paw feet. Created in England during the Regency period, this mahogany side table features a circular top made of grey veined marble. The ensemble is raised on an elegant pedestal adorned with carved waterleaves and gadroons, accented with additional brass foliage details. The table is resting on a tripartite base with banding, fitted with brass lion paw feet mounted on casters. The table will therefore be able to be moved more easily. With its elegant lines and skillfully carved décor, this English Regency period mahogany side table with grey marble top from the 19th century will bring an undeniable touch of refinement to any home decor, perhaps placed in a living room or foyer.
