ENGLISH TURN OF THE CENTURY PINE CRICKET TABLE WITH SCALLOPED APRON, CIRCA 1900

$3,250

An English pine cricket table from the Turn of the Century, with scalloped apron. Born in England in the early years of the 20th century, this charming cricket table features a circular top sitting above an apron scalloped on all sides. The table is raised on straight, splayed legs. Created in the early 16th century, cricket tables were traditionally made of three legs that allowed them to Stand more strongly on uneven grounds. With its understated appearance and nicely aged patina, this English pine cricket table, circa 1900 will bring a touch of tradition to any home.
