ENGLISH TURNED-LEG UPHOLSTERED STOOL WITH BRASS NAILHEAD TRIM, 19TH CENTURY

$2,650

This charming 19th-century English stool features a square seat newly upholstered in a neutral, textured linen blend, finished with classic brass nailhead trim. The upholstery's crisp lines and tailored edge balance the traditional silhouette, making this piece adaptable to both period and contemporary interiors.

The stool stands on four solid oak legs with turned detailing and subtle ring accents, showcasing the warm tone and natural grain of the wood. The slightly tapered lower section and rounded foot lend a grounded, graceful presence.

Compact in footprint but rich in character, this versatile stool can function as occasional seating, a dressing table companion, or a decorative accent tucked under a console or window. The upholstery is recent, professionally done, and ready for everyday use, while the frame retains its original finish and patina, adding depth and authenticity. An elegant blend of English tradition and updated comfort.
