FELIPE DERFLINGHER ART GLASS PENDANT LIGHT FIXTURE WITH GREEN AND YELLOW TONES

$4,500

A Felipe Derflingher art glass pendant light fixture from circa 1970 with green and yellow tones. Crafted by the esteemed artist Felipe Derflingher around the 1970s, this art glass pendant light fixture is a brilliant representation of mid-century modern design blended with timeless craftsmanship. The fixture captivates with its hexagonal shape, which allows for a fascinating play of light, complemented by the mesmerizing interplay of green and yellow tones that cast a warm, inviting glow. Professionally wired for compatibility within the USA, this pendant light fixture is not only a functional piece of art but also a statement piece that can elevate the ambiance of any room. Its unique color palette and design could become a focal point in a dining area, softly illuminating gatherings with its soothing tones, or it could add an artistic touch to a living room, blending seamlessly with contemporary or vintage decor. Ideal for homeowners looking to infuse their space with a piece of history and artistry, this Felipe Derflingher pendant offers both illumination and inspiration. Its distinct aesthetic makes it a conversation starter, ensuring that it's not just seen as a light source but appreciated as a piece of fine art.
