FRENCH 1940S POTTERY ROOSTER TABLE LAMP WITH DARK BROWN PATINA AND LUCITE BASE

$1,200

Two French pottery rooster table lamps from the mid 20th century, with dark patina and lucite bases, priced and sold individually $1,200 each. Created in France during the second quarter of the 20th century, each table lamp draws our attention with its skillful depiction of the French national emblem, the rooster. Showcasing nice details and boasting a lustrous dark brown patina, the roosters have been made into table lamps wired for the US and mounted on circular lucite bases. With their majestic presence and lovely execution, these French pottery roosters circa 1940 will be great decorative additions to any home.
