FRENCH 19TH CENTURY BARLEY TWIST STOOL WITH FINIAL AND CUSTOM LINEN UPHOLSTERY

$3,750

A French walnut stool from the 19th century with barley twist base, turned finial and custom linen upholstery. Born in France during the 19th century, this exquisite walnut stool features a beautifully crafted barley twist base, with legs showcasing intricate twists that add a sense of movement and sophistication. The stool's legs are connected by an H-Form cross stretcher, also adorned with the barley twist design, culminating in a turned toupie shaped finial at the center. This finial adds a touch of decorative charm, drawing the eye to the intricate craftsmanship. The entire base is raised on flatted ball feet, which provide a sturdy yet elegant foundation. The stool is topped with custom linen upholstery, offering a comfortable and stylish seat. The neutral tone of the linen complements the rich, warm hues of the walnut wood, creating a harmonious and inviting appearance. Ideal for use in a living room, bedroom, or study, this 19th-century French walnut stool brings a touch of refined elegance to any interior. Its blend of intricate detailing and functional design ensures it will be a cherished addition to any home, celebrating the rich heritage of French craftsmanship and timeless beauty. Whether used as a seating option or a decorative accent, this stool embodies the perfect fusion of style and practicality.
