FRENCH 19TH CENTURY BLEACHED OAK FARM TABLE WITH TRESTLE BASE AND BALUSTER LEGS

$11,500

A French bleached oak farm table from the 19th century, with trestle base, baluster legs and weathered patina. Created in France during the 19th century, this bleached oak farm table features a rectangular planked top sitting above an elegant trestle base. Three turned baluster legs on scrolling plinths, are connected to one another through a splain cross stretcher. The ensemble boasts a nicely weathered appearance revealing the piece's good age. With its elegant lines, bleached oak finish and nice proportions, this French farm trestle table from the 19th century will make for a wonderful addition to any home, particularly placed in a dining room.
