FRENCH 19TH CENTURY WALNUT FARM TABLE WITH TURNED LEGS AND DISTRESSED PATINA

$11,400

A French walnut farm dining table from the 19th century, with distressed top, turned legs and great rustic character. Created in France during the 19th century, this farm table charms us with its good proportions and nicely weathered appearance. The table features a rectangular planked top showing several repairs and good aging, sitting above a simple apron. Presenting a peg construction, the table is raised on four turned legs on extended ball feet. This is the quintessence of a farm table, with a sturdy build and lots of distressing. Its rustic appeal will make this French walnut farm table from the 19th century an exquisite addition to any dining room or large breakfast area!
