FRENCH ART DECO 1930S STEEL AND BRASS DRINKS TABLE WITH GLASS TOP, SPLAYING LEGS

$5,500

A French Art Deco period steel and brass drinks table from circa 1930, with circular glass top, four splaying legs and lion paw feet. This sophisticated French Art Deco drinks table, dating back to around 1930, is a paragon of the era's penchant for streamlined elegance and luxurious materials. The table features a sleek circular glass top, providing a transparent canvas for displaying libations or decorative items. This top is supported by a quartet of splaying legs, crafted from steel with brass accents, which exude an air of refined industrial chic. Each leg terminates in an exquisitely detailed lion paw foot, a classic nod to the opulence of bygone eras. Ideally suited for a modern home that appreciates vintage charm, this drinks table could serve as an eye-catching centerpiece in a minimalist living room, a functional yet decorative side table in a sophisticated study, or a statement piece in a lavish entertaining space. Its blend of materials and design elements allows it to harmonize with a variety of interior styles, from the understated to the ornate. As a conversational piece, it not only elevates the aesthetics of its environment but also serves as a testament to the timeless allure of Art Deco design.
