FRENCH BURLED WALNUT THREE-TIERED TROLLEY WITH BUTTERFLY VENEER, CIRCA 1870

$2,995

A French burl walnut tiered trolley from the late 19th century, with butterfly veneer, single drawer, turned legs and cavetto molding. Born in the third quarter of the 19th century at the end of the reign of Emperor Napoleon III, this tiered trolley features three exquisite burled walnut shelves. The upper one, adorned with a lovely butterfly veneer, is sitting above a cavetto molding concealing a single drawer. Turned supports with delicate curves accentuate the sides, the ensemble being raised on four petite brass casters. With its refined décor and graceful silhouette, this French 1870s tiered trolley will bring a stylish touch to any home, particularly in a living room or dining room.
