FRENCH EMPIRE 19TH CENTURY PAINTED WOOD FOUR-DRAWER COMMODE WITH GILT BUSTS

$5,850

A French Empire style painted wood four-drawer commode from the 19th century with ebonized columns, carved giltwood female busts and bracket feet. Step into an era of refined elegance with this exquisite French Empire style painted wood four-drawer commode from the 19th century. Its dark blue-gray paint, subtly contrasted against striking black accents, exudes a timeless charm that will grace any home with its neoclassical sophistication. The commode's design is a harmonious blend of functionality and artistry. The drawers, adorned with diamond-shaped escutcheons, provide ample storage space, while the frieze drawer at the top adds a touch of refinement. The ebonized columns, reminiscent of ancient Greek architecture, flank the drawers, adding a touch of grandeur and elegance. Carved giltwood female busts, delicately placed above the columns, further enhance the commode's neoclassical aesthetic. The busts, with their intricate details and classical features, represent the artistic mastery of the era, adding a touch of refined beauty to the piece. The commode's bracket feet, a signature feature of Empire style furniture, provide a graceful support and subtly complement the overall design. The weathered character of the paint, accumulated over time, adds a touch of authenticity and warmth, hinting at the piece's rich history. With its timeless elegance and versatile design, this French Empire style painted wood four-drawer commode can seamlessly integrate into various settings in your home. In a dining room, it can serve as a sophisticated storage cabinet for fine linens and silverware. In a living room, it can provide a graceful display area for decorative objects or books. Or, in a bedroom, it can act as a refined wardrobe or a sophisticated dresser.
