FRENCH EMPIRE FRUITWOOD FOUR-DRAWER COMMODE WITH EBONIZED CORINTHIAN COLUMNS

$11,250

A French Empire fruitwood four-drawer commode from the early 19th century with ebonized columns, gilt Corinthian capitals and bronze hardware. This exquisite French Empire style fruitwood commode, dating from the early 19th century, effortlessly blends historical grandeur with functional elegance. Its classic silhouette is enriched by the warmth of the fruitwood, accented with ebonized columns that stand at each corner, leading the eye upwards to the delicate gilt Corinthian capitals—an homage to the rich architectural heritage of the Empire period. The commode features four generously sized drawers, each adorned with intricate bronze hardware, hinting at the luxury and opulence of the era. Bracket feet provide a solid foundation, grounding the piece in stability and style. The commode's design is both timeless and versatile, making it a perfect addition to any contemporary home. It could serve as a statement piece in a living room, offering both storage and a display surface for art objects or floral arrangements. Alternatively, it might find a place in a spacious bedroom, where the rich textures and materials can be appreciated up close. Its historical roots, combined with the functionality of the drawers, offer a blend of aesthetic appeal and practical use that is rare in modern furniture pieces.
