FRENCH GENTLEMAN'S WOODEN VALET STAND WITH SCROLL ACCENTS, EARLY 20TH CENTURY

$2,400

A French gentleman's valet in warm-toned wood, likely dating to the early 20th century, designed with elegant scroll accents at the crest, joints, and feet. Tall and slender, it offers both practicality and style, providing a graceful way to keep garments organized and aired between uses.

The valet features an arched top rail enriched with carved scrolls, joined to slender uprights connected by a horizontal bar for hanging jackets or trousers. Below, a stretcher platform offers space for shoes or accessories, while the scrolling feet give balance and decorative flourish to the design. The overall silhouette is understated yet refined, characteristic of French craftsmanship from the period.

Functional as well as decorative, this valet brings antique charm to a bedroom, dressing room, or guest space, offering convenience without sacrificing elegance.
