FRENCH IRON AND BRASS GUÉRIDON TABLE WITH QUATREFOIL INSPIRED MARBLE TOP

$2,795

A French iron guéridon table from the 19th century with brass accents and quatrefoil inspired marble top. Born in France during the 19th century, this exquisite iron guéridon table features a quatrefoil-inspired marble top, securely nestled within a beautiful wrought iron structure. The ironwork is accentuated with brass framed scrolls and twisted rope motifs, adding a touch of sophistication and decorative flair to the piece. The pedestal is composed of four gracefully curving legs, each adorned with delicate rosettes, enhancing the table's refined aesthetic. These legs converge to create a sturdy yet elegant base, providing both stability and visual appeal. The combination of iron and brass creates a harmonious contrast, highlighting the intricate details and rich patina of the materials. Ideal for use as a statement piece in a living room, entryway, or parlor, this 19th-century French guéridon table brings a touch of historical charm and elegance to any decor. Its ornate design and refined details make it a captivating focal point, perfect for displaying decorative items, flowers, or a cherished lamp. The blend of marble, iron, and brass ensures this table will be a cherished addition to any home, celebrating the beauty and craftsmanship of French antique furniture.
