FRENCH LOUIS XV 19TH CENTURY CARVED WALNUT FOOTSTOOL WITH TAPESTRY UPHOLSTERY

$1,800

A French Louis XV style carved walnut footstool from the 19th century with tapestry upholstery. This French Louis XV-style walnut footstool exudes timeless elegance and charm, showcasing the ornate artistry characteristic of the Rococo period. The hand-carved walnut frame is adorned with delicate floral motifs and intricate scrollwork along the apron, harmonizing beautifully with its cabriole legs, which terminate in elegant whorls. The tapestry upholstery, featuring a vibrant and richly detailed botanical design, is secured with brass nailhead trim, adding a refined touch to the piece's overall aesthetic. Compact in size yet brimming with personality, this footstool is as functional as it is decorative. Its low profile and plush surface make it ideal for elevating tired feet while adding a dash of old-world sophistication to your living room, bedroom, or dressing area. Alternatively, it can serve as a charming accent piece, placed alongside an armchair or in an entryway to bring a touch of French elegance to any space. Whether you're creating a vintage-inspired interior or looking to incorporate a distinctive antique into a more modern decor, this Louis XV-style footstool serves as a testament to French craftsmanship and design. Perfect for collectors and those with an eye for fine details, this footstool is not only a practical accessory but also a work of art.
