FRENCH LOUIS XVI STYLE WALNUT FOOTSTOOL WITH LINEN UPHOLSTERY, 19TH CENTURY

$1,800

A French Louis XVI style walnut footstool from the 19th century with custom linen upholstery. This exquisite Louis XVI-style footstool, crafted in 19th-century France, showcases timeless elegance with its refined walnut frame and meticulous hand-carving. The oval seat is newly upholstered in custom linen, offering a fresh and sophisticated touch while complementing the historical charm of the piece. The delicately carved rosettes and rais-de-cœur inspired detailing on the apron, paired with the classic fluted legs, epitomize the neoclassical aesthetic that defines the Louis XVI style. Its warm walnut tone adds richness to its design, making it a stunning accent piece that effortlessly enhances traditional or modern interiors alike. This petite footstool is ideal for adding a luxurious flair to any room. Place it at the foot of an armchair for added comfort, use it as a decorative display base, or incorporate it into a dressing room or boudoir for a touch of French elegance. Its size makes it versatile for smaller spaces while offering functional and decorative possibilities. A perfect blend of history, craftsmanship, and practicality, this 19th-century Louis XVI-style footstool is a beautiful addition to any collection or home. Its unique patina and modern linen upholstery ensure it serves as both a functional piece and a conversation starter. A true testament to French artistry, this piece is sure to add sophistication to your living space.
